

In every woman's heart; lies a hidden aspiration of being successful in all facets of life; but to contour it, she has to surpass the dark hour of adversity. Over the years, women have made great efforts to establish an identity and make a mark on social platforms as well as in organizations. It's a known fact that women are making their existence felt in all the fields, whether it is armed forces or corporate. Two significant elements of an individual, self-esteem and individuality, have brought women to explore their potential beyond the four walls. The biggest challenge faced by women in today's scenario is to create an ideal image both at work and at home. The issue is not to choose between family and work but it is to strike the right balance between the two.

Consonance means harmony and this workshop is designed to help women attain poise in the various roles they are handling. A woman can play an extremely important role in shaping vision and developing the society. It is important for women to realize this and take a step forward.
